

“When I saw you I fell in love, and you smiled because you knew.”

William Shakespeare

A HOME WITH HISTORY

Soughton Hall is a Grade II* listed house, built in 1720 and remodelled in 1820 by Sir Charles Barry, who went on to design the Houses of Parliament. Today, Soughton has been transformed from the family seat of the Wynne-Bankes family into a luxury wedding and event venue.

Contemporary in feel, yet full of character, charm and warmth, the Hall combines the atmosphere of a cherished family home with the luxury of a country retreat.

IT'S ALL YOURS

Soughton Hall is one of the great houses of North Wales, home to bishops, judges and 18th century playboys! Over its illustrious history it has hosted the grandest of occasions, but its charm lies in being intimate enough for you and your guests to feel at home here.

Fully refurbished in 2017, our award winning interiors are contemporary yet classic, filled with heritage fabrics and antique furniture. We guarantee that you will feel like Lord and Lady of the Manor for the day.

SETTING THE STAGE

The most perfect setting for the most perfect day. The approach to Soughton, down a 300 year old lime avenue, cannot fail to impress. As the Hall comes into view, you will see our stunning formal gardens, which offer all manner of places for quiet reflection and photographs.

Our south facing Walled Garden, designed by Sir Charles Barry and inspired by the exotic travels of William John Wynne Banks provides a beautiful setting for drinks receptions, garden games, and of course, the most amazing photography.

YOUR CEREMONY

Your ceremony is undoubtedly one of the most important events of your life. Our spaces, full of history, charm and character, provide a stunning backdrop and one that is in keeping with the importance of the occasion. All our spaces seem to come to life when dressed for a wedding – and you can make all of them your own, with linen, room dressing and flowers.

We are licensed for indoor ceremonies in The Drawing Room and The Dining Room, both airy and light filled double height spaces with a magical view of the Walled Gardens. The Dining Room is lined in blue and gold and features a fresco painted ceiling with chandeliers. The Drawing Room is lined with ornate carved oak panelling and mirrors and features a huge marble fireplace.

You can also be married in the grounds of the Hall, in our Secret Garden. Set in a raised ornamental garden overlooking the southern façade of the Hall, this tranquil space has a wisteria covered pergola and can seat 80 guests.

RECEPTIONS

With Soughton exclusively yours, the Hall and its grounds become the backdrop to the day of your dreams.

As you walk hand in hand from your ceremony, step out into the sun-kissed South Garden for drinks and canapés and let your guests enjoy garden games on the lawn while the photographer captures those first happy moments together.

Then on to the first feast for the happy couple! Accessed through the Hall, down a glass-roofed walkway, our Marquee overlooks wooded gardens, and has its own bar and outside covered seating area.

A beautiful space as it is, or a blank canvas for you to dress to suit your style and personality, it is designed to work with any colour or decoration and will take you and all your favourite people from day to evening.

Our firm belief is that every wedding day is unique and is designed just for you. You have at your disposal all our amazing and talented staff who will do whatever it takes to deliver the most amazing day of your life.

Whatever your wedding dreams, we will bring them to life.

FOOD

The kitchens at Soughton have been serving food to discerning guests for nearly three centuries and we are proud to continue that tradition into the present day.

Fresh, local and seasonal produce is the hallmark of all our menus. As befits your first feast as a newly married couple, every part of your wedding breakfast will be specially prepared by our team of passionate and talented chefs.

We have many creative menus for you to select from that are guided by the season, but as is the way at Soughton, our chefs will create a menu that can be tailored to suit your style and personality.

THE STATELIEST OF SLEEPOVERS

Our 15 bedrooms still retain many of their names from the original house, but have been refurbished to a standard you would expect from a luxury boutique hotel. Now furnished to an award winning standard, all our rooms are individually decorated with contemporary heritage fabrics and antique furniture.

Breakfast is served the next morning in our oak panelled Dining Room, where you can invite guests who have stayed elsewhere back to the Hall to enjoy a full Welsh breakfast in style.

FINISHING TOUCHES

Our expert staff will ensure you have the most fabulous day with everything you wish for. We are experienced in hosting weddings and ceremonies that vary from intimate receptions to lavish wedding breakfasts with the same attention to detail throughout.

We work with some of the best suppliers in the North West and can arrange everything from canapés to camper vans.

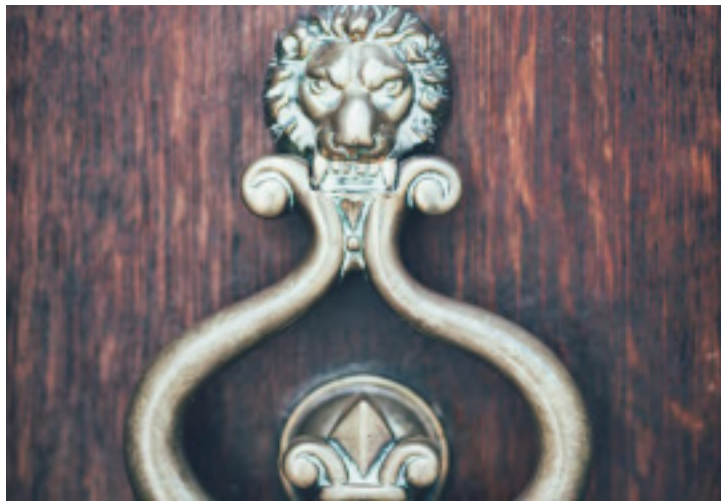

We offer packages for our clients, which can be tailor made to your requirements, but our main aim is to assist you in creating the wedding of your dreams and do everything we can to deliver it for you.
